

BIG INVITATION BALL FRIDAY OF CARNIVAL WEEK

Directors Decide That Opening Night Shall Be Devoted Exclusively to Ad Club Masked Ball

Opening night of the 1916 Carnival has been turned over to the Ad Club without reservation, and will be featured with a big masked ball to be held at the armory, following opening dancing to be held at the Palace grounds, according to a decision just communicated to W. R. Farrington, president of the Ad Club, by J. F. C. Hagena, the Carnival president.

Under the new arrangement Guy H. Butolph, who had been asked to be chairman of the masked ball committee, will take charge, instead of the directors' ball, which will be given Friday night of Carnival week, and will be an invitational and not a subscription affair.

The Carnival decorations committee will decorate the armory for the masked ball, cooperating with the Ad Club and the Carnival will assume the costs of the decorations.

Official information that the Hawaiian Department will sanction the participation of troops on Oahu in the Carnival has been given the board of carnival directors, and as part of the program for the troops an athletic meet and a military tournament are being planned. The tournament will be held Saturday afternoon at Kapiolani park. A request that the navy also take part in the Carnival has been sent to Rear-Admiral Clifford J. Boush, commander at Pearl Harbor. Marston Campbell, chairman of the pyrotechnic committee, has announced that John A. Young and N. H. Denison will be in charge of the marine events, and Capt. Norris Stayton, U. S. A., will have charge of placing searchlights.

A Japanese director is to be selected by representative Japanese businessmen, and will be placed on the board.

BILL OF MOVIES SHOWING HAWAII

Visitors who arrived in the Great Northern, as well as Honolulu folk, are to have a treat offered them in the form of a motion picture exhibition at the Opera House next Sunday evening.

The films displayed will be typical of Hawaii, and will include some of the finest films secured throughout the islands by R. K. Bonine, the local photographer. The entertainment will be a veritable "Night in Hawaii," and something which should not be missed by those visitors who find that they will not have time to visit the other islands.

Among the scenes to be shown at the Molokai leper settlement, the great crater of Haleakala (House of the Sun), a native lau fishing scenes, military life in Hawaii, Honolulu in Carnival time and other scenes of interest.

Seats are on sale at the Territorial Messenger Service, Union street.

Another barn on the estate of John D. Rockefeller, at Tarrytown, N. Y., was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

Many cases of new styles of shoes were received by the Manufacturers' Shoe Co. on the last Wednesday, and among other styles are Bronze Bead, Genesha, novelties in White Kid Slippers, White Canvas Pumps with black piping, and Black Patent Pumps with white piping.—Adv.

The Source of Vital Power

Nothing helps more to counteract the daily drain on human endurance than pure, revitalizing food.

Grape-Nuts

is concentrated nourishment made from whole wheat and malted barley.

It supplies all the nutriment of these wholesome grains, retaining all the vital body-building salts—potash, lime, iron, etc.—lacking in white bread and many other foods, but which are absolutely necessary to rebuilding of sinew, brain and nerves.

Grape-Nuts is partly predigested in its making—hence demands but little effort from the digestive organs.

Delicious and splendidly satisfying, it's the ideal school ration for children—a wonderful builder for adults.

MRS. McGRATH DIVORCED FROM FUGITIVE HUSBAND

Caroline E. McGrath obtained her divorce from John Joseph McGrath, alleged opium ring leader and fugitive from justice, in Circuit Judge Whitney's court today. She was called to the witness stand and testified that, during the last 60 days, her husband has declined to provide for her support. The decree was issued to take effect today. The divorce summons was returned to circuit court last Wednesday, bearing a signed statement to the effect that it had been served on McGrath in person in San Francisco on October 4. McGrath is wanted by the territorial authorities on a robbery charge.

DANCE AT THE SEASIDE HOTEL

There will be the usual delightful dance at the Seaside Hotel tomorrow evening. The visitors by the Great Northern, the local society folk and the officers of the army and navy with their friends are cordially invited.—Adv.

CANNOT FORECAST WEATHER HERE WITH ONLY ONE STATION

Andrew M. Hamrick, meteorologist of the United States Weather Bureau, stationed in Honolulu, was the principal speaker before members of the Hawaiian Engineering Association at a meeting held in the library building last night.

Mr. Hamrick's address dealt with rain and the causes of rain, and with weather forecasting. He said that the one small station here did not allow accurate forecasting for long periods ahead and that 12 hours was about the limit of time the Weather Bureau could look ahead, and that the chief function of the Weather Bureau here is to gather records and study conditions, not to forecast.

Before the address, William R. Baringer, P. W. Blunt, L. C. Cain, Charles F. Eckart, U. Matsui and E. Q. Smith were elected active members of the association, and R. R. Craik, H. Gooding Field and J. C. Hedemann were elected associate members.

REMODEL McINERNEY BLOCK NEXT APRIL; PUT IN NEW FRONTS

As soon as material which has been ordered from the mainland arrives, the McInerney block at the corner of Merchant and Fort streets is to be completely remodeled. Modern store fronts are to be put in for the space occupied by the McInerney Clothing Store and the Trent Trust Company. The old awnings are to be removed, and the clothing store building will be entirely renovated inside and out.

The improvements on the front will extend from the store of Peacock & Company on Merchant to the Fitzpatrick Cigar store on Fort street. The McInerney store will take the space formerly occupied by Kruger, watchmaker, on Fort street, the partition between this store and the clothing store will be removed and the rear wall will be moved back.

Material for the work is not expected until early in April. The United States is suffering from a dollar bill shortage, according to Treasurer John Burke, who says that the demand for the one dollar bill is so great that the treasury has not been able to meet it. Judgments aggregating $150,000 have been filed at Charlestown, W. Va., against Col. John T. McGraw, democratic national committeeman from West Virginia, and a number of his business associates.

CHILDREN'S FETE TO BE REPEATED IN ALL VARIETY

W. R. Castle Grounds Will Be Scene of Picturesque Carnival

The dressing-room is all ready for the little children who are to entertain the people of Honolulu tomorrow afternoon. The grounds and garden of the W. R. Castle home on Victoria and Kinohao streets are in readiness for as great a crowd as may wish to come.

The pageant was very successful when held at the armory. Many who were anxious to come had to remain away, hence the demand for a repetition. The children who are representing the flower and vegetable kingdom are all so well trained in their respective parts that comment is unnecessary.

Frank Dougherty will be the "megaphone man" and he will announce each section and keep the road of march clear, so that all may see. Nothing but punch and cornucopias will be for sale.

Much amusement has been planned for the children's entertainment. It is safe to say that the grown-ups are going to enjoy the garden party as much as the little folks. Mrs. Bolton has charge of the music.

A clarion call will follow the megaphone announcement. The children will walk single file, except where grouping will be more natural.

The following is the order of march:

1. Piped piper.
2. Small elfins.
3. Rainbow float.
4. Flowers, Anglo-Saxon, with fancy float in center.
5. Butterflies, first section.
6. Peacock.
7. Flowers, Hawaiian.
8. Smaller birds, first section.
9. Flowers, Portuguese.
10. Butterflies, second section.
11. Flowers, Chinese.
12. Butterflies, third section.
13. Vegetables.
14. Birds, second section.
15. Fruit.
16. Animals.

JAPANESE ON COAST LOOK TO HAWAII FOR FINAL SETTLEMENT

The Japanese-American Club met Wednesday evening at Japanese Y. M. C. A. in their weekly business discussion of plans for good citizenship. Dr. M. Miyakawa was the speaker of the evening and in a short talk urged the young Japanese to work for a better understanding with Americans. He asked that the young men of Hawaii set an example of how the Japanese can become good citizens and stated that California is looking to Hawaii for a settlement of the problem.

Dr. Miyakawa gave a number of his experiences in California when he was legal counsel for the Japanese children who were asked to leave the schools in that state. The speaker said that he had worked hard to settle the question, and was entirely satisfied when the decision was reached that Japanese could attend the public schools. He stated that he was pleased to know that the Japanese of Hawaii are working along the right lines for a better understanding between the two races.

New York's smallest theatre is the Bramhall Playhouse, seating only 225 persons. The stage, however, is large enough for the ordinary play. Fifteen white long term convicts escaped from the convict camp at Sandy Mush, near Asheville, N. C.

"QUALITY INN" OPEN TOMORROW

Handsomely-Fitted Refreshment Parlor Caters to Discriminating Tastes

"Quality Inn" Honolulu's latest evidence of up-to-date business alertness striking out in a new path to meet the favor of men and women of discrimination, will open tomorrow its handsomely-fitted quarters on Hotel street, and will offer at once a refreshment parlor distinctly different from anything else in the city.

Quality Inn is created to satisfy the need for a place where every appointment is artistic and pleasing and where, at the same time, there will be served a dainty luncheon, afternoon tea and refreshments suited to a variety of appetites and always appealing to the busy man or busy woman.

"Quality and Service," the motto of the inn, is carried out in outward aspect as much as in the internal administration. With exceeding care and attention to the finer instincts, the proprietors have planned everything to cater to the discriminating.

A large, airy, cool and well-proportioned room, paneled in a wood whose beauty and appropriateness at once strikes the observer, is the Quality Inn, 82-84 Hotel street. In fact, the beauty of this wood itself is worth a visit. It is southern red gum, and this paneled is said to be the only specimen of this rich, beautifully-grained wood anywhere in Hawaii. It has been imported from California. All around the room, and around the well-equipped soda fountain, are these panels. The tables were made to order and the chairs, which will finally be used, were also made to order, but the chairs selected have not arrived. Nevertheless, very pretty chairs have been secured until the others reach here.

Though delayed by the closing of the Panama canal, which shut off some much-needed equipment, and in getting other articles from manufacturers or retailers, the inn will open as planned, tomorrow morning.

The lighting is indirect, even the chandeliers carrying out the modern plan of indirect illumination. The inn has a seating capacity of 100. The candy counter and soda fountain are two strong features.

Another feature, and one which is bound to make the inn popular at once among the representative women of the city, is the ladies' dressing room and telephone booth, and for the busy woman downtown will be a welcome convenience.

The effect of the whole inn is one of coolness, rest and relaxation, and in its comfortable chairs and around the pretty tables appetites are bound to be stimulated for the toothsome edibles and refreshing ices which will be served. The decoration of the upper walls and ceilings adds to the atmosphere of ease and relaxation. The walls above the paneled are gray and the ceiling is done in ivory the decorative trimmings being restfully simple. The decorative scheme to be seen at its best should be viewed by the indirect illumination at night.

In the fixtures and in the preparation of everything served, emphasis is to be placed on cleanliness through and through. Everything is sanitary. All the water used, for instance, will be filtered. Nothing has been spared to insure that the food and daintily-served shall be clean, sweet and wholesome.

Quality Inn is under the direct management of Robert C. McLean who, by the way, is entitled to active membership in the mythical "Come-Back Club." He was born here, and after 23 years of business elsewhere came to Honolulu last spring. After deciding on these premises as fitting a need for Honolulu, he returned to the mainland this summer and spent months in careful selection of furnishings and equipment.

Emory & Webb are the architect and the Pacific Engineering Company the contractors in doing the work. White Brothers of San Francisco furnished the wood and panels, the Puller Company of San Francisco the mirrors, and E. W. Ellis the show-case and soda fountain. The decoration was done by Ed Wickman. BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter today than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-21

Dimond & Company furnished the tableware.

The dispenser in charge is C. G. Bush, a man of wide experience.

Quality Inn will be open from 8 in the morning to 11 at night. The luncheonette, a feature which is expected to prove very popular with mid-day diners, will be served from 12 to 2, and afternoon tea will be served from 2 to 5.

A well-chosen line of candies and refreshments has been secured. Foster & Crear's candies—the famous candies sold at the ferry depot, foot of Market street, San Francisco—will be handled. Rawley's products will be sold here.

This afternoon the finishing touches are being put on this new resort. Tomorrow delf waitresses in neat blue-and-white costumes will be ready to meet the patrons of this up-to-date and attractive lunch and refreshment room.

In Russia there are enough people to purchase Great Britain, Germany and France with a considerable number left over.

Coffee, tea and cocoa were added to the list of products whose sale will be regulated by the German government.
